

Are Genetic Counselors
Objective enough?

North western genetic Counselors

Parents are scared
and unknowledgeable

Ellen had trisomy 18

Trisomy kids stigma
not good enough

Abortion is the better option

Some counselors believe that if any complications arise, abortion is right

I need to delve into why the stigma started and why genetic counselors have a bias.

There's always a chance that that person can effect others
