

1. Average people don't know about genetic disabilities

2. Most kids born with these disabilities don't often live long.

3. Genetic counselors have an inherent bias

4. Sometimes the kids can live a long time

5. The kids almost always are a huge burden upon the parents/family